THE MUNICIPAL STRUGGLE. The Nanaimo Incorporation bill has finally passed the Assembly, after a somewhat stormy debate. The great point at issue was the system of police governmentwhether the Executive should retain the control of the police or whether the force small or great as it might be, should be placed under the control of the inhabitants The House has decided in favor of the latter scheme. The Governor is to have the power of appointing the members of the force, but their pay is to be left to the Council and their superintendence and control exclusively to the Mayor. We think there will be but one opinion as to the action of the Assembly, and that one a hearty endorsation. The principle of self-government is too dear to the heart of every honest and intelligent British subject to be ignored with impunity by any Legislature. the people want in every part of the Island, where the circumstances will admit of it, is the power to manage their local affairs, and they will have the power, despite any and all antagonism, come from what quarter it may. The miserable attempts which were made by a few members of the House to make the Nanaimo Incorporation bill a burlesque-to ignore the right of the inhabitants to govern themselves -- recoiled on their own heads. There was sufficient manliness in the Assembly to rise above the wretched pandering to

Executive power, and the schemes of the enemies of the public proved, as they always will in the end prove, abortive.

are more fit for a Russian Province than an English Colony. And yet we have such creatures in our midst—we have individuals in the city of Victoria who would to-morrow yield up avery vestige of their manhood and think it only a too unworthy offering at the shrine of Executive power. We have sycophants in the House and reptiles in the press who glory in their own shame and humiliation;—who like the dastardly blockhead in ation :- who like the dastardly blockhead in yesterday's Chronicle, would actually scream with joy at the prospect of damage to the popular cause. Fortunately such creatures are rare on Vancouver Island, and fortunately they are as stupid as they are upprincipled. In all cases instead of exciting public ire they become the objects of general ridicule and contempt, and have less influence of the Flathead Indians. We cannot say what may be the disposition made of the Victoria Incorpora-tion bill to-day. But we know how the public feel about the matter,-we know that they are even more anxious to-day than they were when they transmitted the monster petition to the House, to see the police maintained and controlled by the Corporation of the city. When we think of size and character of that petition—the voice in fact of every respectable inhabitant in the place-praying for the transfer of the police from the Executive to the municipal authorities, we are at a loss to know how any person can have the presumption to rise up in the House and declare that the inhabitants of Victoria shall not have what they desire -shall not control what they are willing to maintain. There may be many schemes offered to-day to replace the original proposition -some partaking of Dr. Powell's practical resolution on the Nanaimo bill, and others of a more cumbrous character, bu pass what scheme the House may the public will not be satisfied unless the inhabitants some way or other shall have the con-

with the inhabitants than the most worthless

will in the end prove, abortive.

The question at issue, although in itself one affecting but a fraction of the people of Vancouver Island, embraces, nevertheless, one of the most important principles which can come up before a legislative body. It is on this ground, and not merely because the inhabitants of Nanaimo will have a little more to say in the management of the police, that we deem the subject worthy of more than ordinary attention. It is on the ground that in a new country like this, where Governments are apt to deal in a despotic manner with public interest, it becomes absolutely necessary that instead of adding power to the Executive we should transfer as much as we can to the people. Any person or class of persons who hold a contrary opinion to this are more fit for a Russian Province than an English Colony. CHARGE OF ASSAULT-Mr. Herbert Gaston was charged yesterday in the police court by Mr. Joseph Frontin with assaulting him by mitted. It appeared from the statement of bunal. the parties that an altereation had taken company, including Fanny Morgan Phelps, are still playing in Portland. The lessed some assertion which Gaston thought was a reflection on his veracity, and he thereupon committed the assault. The complainant offered to produce testimony that he was correct in his assertion, but the magistrate declined to receive it, and asked the accused whether he was not aware that he had trans gressed the law. Gaston said he had acted in a moment of irritation and he regretted it. The magistrate then asked if he willing to apologise, to which Gaston replied that he would apologise to the Court but not to the complainant; because if the same thing converted agreement agree offered to produce testimony that he was correct in his assertion, but the magistrate defined to receive it, and asked the accused whether he was not aware that he had trans gressed the law. Gaston said he had acted in a moment of irritation and he regretted it. The magistrate then asked if he willing to apologise, to which Gaston replied that he would apologise to the Court but not to the complainant; because if the same thing occurred again he should feel in duty bound to take the same course. Mr. Pemberton said he should have to inflict some punishment, and suggested, as the parties had arrived at said he should have to inflict some punishment, and suggested, as the parties had arrived at years of discretion, that an apology should be given and accepted and end the foolish fluubble. The complainant asked the magistrate to deal lightly as the apology was as much as could be expected from a country where bewie-knives and recofers were used. Mr. Pemberton would not allow the relations to be made and, said if the were used. Mr. Pemberton would not allow such reflections to be made, and said if the complainant wished him to be lenient he would dismiss the case. He would, however, let the case stand over for one day to cnable the parties to come to terms. Mr. Frontin asked for protection, and the accused was accordingly required to find bonds himself in $500 and two sureties in $250 each.

THE MARSH FAMILY -- The pleasure-loving members of the Marsh family now sojourning amongst us for many enjoyable hours. three years have elapsed since the cheery rubicund visage of the elder representative of the family suddenly turned up in Victoria as a sort of histrionic patriarch. The attractions of his fair and talented troupe created a new interest in public amusements, and to a certain extent a new era was inaugurated in our local stage. No wonder then that the return of these theatrical favorites was hailed with satisfaction by pluygoers amongst all classes in the community. After spending a winter season with us and enlivening many winter season with us and enlivening many dull moments, certain prominent citizens have tendered them a benefit, which promises to be a very brilliant affair. Active preparations have commoned for the propoduction of the romantic drama of the "Forty Thieves." The trials and tribulations of Ganem and Morgiana, and the picturesque rascalities of the dread Abdallab, with his eauguinary licutenant, Hassarac, seem to possess a perconnal interest with with his eauguinary licutenant, Hassarac, seem to possoss a perennial interest with young and old, and there will be ne diminution on this occasion. We learn the following cast has been 'lecided upon by the managing beneficiary: Ali Baba, R. G. Marsh; Ganem, G. W. Marsh; Cassim Baba, W. A. Harries; Abdallah, Adjt. Vinter; Hassarac Godfrey Brown: and Mustapha, the Cobbler, by Ben. Griffin. Morgiana will find a graceful and piquante representative in Jenoy Arnot; and Alport, the "infantine" vocalist, will be a pathetic and devoted Cogia. The performance will terminate with Bruton's laughable farce of "Bathing," in which Messrs. Rushton, Callingham, Harries, Young, Weynton, and others will appear.

TASMANIA VS. AUSTRALIA-In answer the enquiries of "Susan," a maid evidently discontented with her lot and wishing to emigrate, the Weekly Dispatch has the following :- Tasmania is more likely to afford a comfortable home than Victoria, There is a good deal of wealth distributed amongst a small population in Tasmania. They posccss over 4,000,000 sheep, which produce large quantities of fine wool, which is ship-ned to England and turned into hard cash red to England and turned into hard cash red to England and turned into hard cash The people also produce an abundance of fruit, regetables and corn, a portion of which is shipped to the neighboring colonies. Taxation is light; but Sydney offers a better chance of obtaining employment, beca se a large population is concentrated in that capital. Melbourne should be avoided. There is generally a want of comfortable homes. The houses are m.ecrably deficient in space and the number of rooms. The homes. The houses are m. erably denound in space and the number of rooms. The supply of demestic servants has been far beyond the wants of the colonists, and the females who cannot find employment are soon reduced to extreme want. Tusmania is the smallest of the Australian colonies. New South Wales is nearly twelve times as large.

CORMORANT STREET DENS - The police magistrate was occupied for some time yesterday morning in enquiring into the merits of a charge preferred by a celestial named Sing Chong against a Skidegate Indian named Kil-cut, for damaging his property. The partner of Kil-cut's joys was also in the dock on a charge of D. and D., and the dock on a charge of D. and D., and when questioned as to what she know of the affair became so garrilous and eloquent in the Chinook language that the police had some difficulty is stopping her. After hearing the parties the beach took the statement of Sergeant Blake, who said the Chinaman kept a number of dens that were used as Indian brothels, and were a great misance. A cross-charge of assault was entered against the Chinaman and Mr. Pemberton fined each $10, warning the Chinaman against continuing the nuisance. against continuing the nuisance.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL,

WEDNESDAY, March 23. The Council met at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, His Honor Chief Justice Needham presiding. Members present — the Hons. Colonial Secretary, Attorney General, Donald Fraser, and H. Rhodes. DISTRICT COURTS ACT.

The President read a communication from the House of Assembly re-enclosing the District Courts Act, stating that that body could not agree to the proposed amendments. Hon, Donald Faser thought that it would be additionable to the read-rease should be advisable to urge that some reasons should be assigned for the course adopted, as some misapprehension evidently existed with re-misapprehension ovidently existed with reforence to the proviso affecting the employment of agents in suits not previously sanctioned by the Court.

The Chief Justice coincided with the previous *peaker, as the honorable members of the Lower House could scarcely realize the importance of the principle involved in the suggested alteration. It was a very damegerous precedent to enture to irresponsible persons the power of wielding the machinery of the law, as it would be very lamentable. of the law, as it would lead to an amount of oppression which would be very lamentable. Upon mature consideration it might be deemed prudent for the Council to expange the clause in question altogether, in order to protect the public interests.

Hon. Mr. Fraser was of opinion that it would be better to take time for deliberation before moving in this matter. It would certainly be requisite to remove the bias of the clause as it stood in the original bill.

THE VOLUNTEERS. Hon. Colonial Secretary gave notice that on a future occasion he would ask leave to introduce a bill to legalize the formation of a Volunteer Corps.

NANAIMO INCORPORATION.

House went into Committee, Dr. Dickson Clause 8 was passed, making every male inhabitant, not less than 18 and under 50, perform two days labor on the public roads.

Mr. McClure moved that a Board of Commissioners of Police shall be appointed im-mediately after the first meeting of the Coun-mediately after the first meeting of the Council, consisting of the Mayor, a Justice of the Peace and a resident inhabitant appointed by the Council, such board to control and regulate the police force.

Dr. Helmcken said that under the ordinary rules of the House it would be supposed that the clause placing the police under the control of the Corporation having been struck out it would have been sufficient to have prevented the hon, member from bringing forward this motion, which was almost the same thing, only placing the police under a curred test evening between a well known merchant on Wharf street and a real estate board of commissioners instead of under the board of commissioners instead of under the Corporation. Saying nothing of the retrench ment in providing for a separate government for a place that according to a previous statement only required one constable, he went upon the broad principle that the police should be placed under the general Government, not the Corporation. The hon, gentleman proceeded to show in what instances the services of the force might be collected.

The police were always more horest and efficient when under the supervision of the people who paid them.

Mr. Cochrane here entered.

Dr. Powell was in favor of the system of country districts being protected by constabulary appointed by justices of the peace; but where the last gentleman was in error was in anticipating the passing of a general municipal law such as existed in Canada. He (Dr. P.) advocated the appointment of constables being made by the Executive until such a system, of which he was in favor, was in force. It worked to perfection in Canada; but there was no analogy between Canadian towns and Nanaimo, as the latter town was so small.

Mr. Cunnigham took the last speaker to task on his facts respecting Canada, and read portion of the municipal act granting such powers to small communities, to show that the hone, gentleman was wrong in his statements. (Hear.)

Dr. Powell asked the hone gentleman whether he could instance any small town of a thousand people that appointed its was

Mr. DeCosmos—No!

Dr. Helmcken—The hon, gentleman may say no, but he is afraid of a blue coat himself. It is not long since some hon, gentlemen hid themselves during the night from one policeman, (Laughter.) The hon gentleman [Mr. MrChure] had misrepresented him implying that the police force of the Island should belong to Victoria; what he mean twas that the Executive should have the control of the force. In a more civilized country called England the police were placed under one general head, and the municipalities had no control over them. The sen, member did not believe in a better system because he had never seen it. He [Dr. H] had.

Mr. Cunningham regretted that the oin had produced so much discussion; his object in placing the police under the corporation was simply that the present system was quite inefficient to preyent crime, which was committed under the very nose of the magics.

Mr. M'Citire said it was certainly that the hon. gentleman (Dr. H.) who talked so much about Ragland should display so so much about Kagland should display so much ignorance about the police of the United Kingdom No later than 1863 a bill had been brought into the House of Commons to take the police from the control of the city of London and place them under the Government, a measure which the House repudiated. As to Ireland the hon, gentleman was entirely wrong. He had got confused. There were two systems of police in Ireland the municipal and the general.

was resumed at clause 7.

A long discussion took place respecting the expediency of disqualifying ministers of religion from sitting in the Legislative Assembly. The Chief Justice observed that he doubted the policy of excluding elergymen from participating in the government of the generally men of enlightenment and chastened views. In a large community their deliberative assistance could perhaps be dispensed with, but with a limited population it was different. The only valid objection entertained as to the propriety of their admission was their sectarian opinions, but they were invariably gentlemen of judgment and discretion, and their advice would be valuable.

The Colonial Secretary was content with the clause as it stood as disqualifying olergyman. It had been found to answer very well hitherto.

Hon: Attorney General was understood to say that a polliucal career which necessitated incessant strife and contention was not ex-

Dr. Helmcken argued that the police in England were the saleguards of liberty; in-stead of interfering with the freedom of the subject they protected it by preventing the laws from being broken. Mr. DeCosmos—And in France? Dr. Helmcken—Ohl the hon, gontleman

Mr. M'Clure—Order (laughter).
Dr. Helmeken sat down but rose again, and being in a facetious mood began to amuse himself and the House at the expense of the senior member for the city, who had said that the people of the Island would in two years cry out for a system of municipal police from Victoria to the top of the Rocky mountains.

Terms, $3 per month. A reduction made for your or three quilts in a family. N.B.—Private lessons given.

Caution to Miners going to Big Bend.—No one should start for these mines without being quite sure that his teeth are in good order. F. W. Cave, Dentist, Trounce Alley, opposite the Colonist office, is still practising his profession at English prices.

New Westminster.—Miners and others going to Big Bend or Bridge River will find Hicks' Hotel (which is now kept by W. E. Stein, formerly of the Hot Springs,) one of the best and cleanest houses in the city—Meals and Beds at 50 cents each, and prinks 12½ cents.

The remaining sub-sections of clause 7 were then adopted with some slight amendments, and the Council adjourned until today at 2 c'clock.

Dr. Powell introduced an amendment to the effect that the police should be appointed by the Governor subject to what remuneration the Council might deem fit.

Mr. Cochrane did not sea the use of the proposed change in the police. He thought it unadvisable to place the police under the Corporation, as cases might occur, as one had some menths ago, in which they were required to quell a rublic disturbance, when they would be subject to the very authorities that had instigated it, and if the corporation had the control they might do it again.

Mr. DeCosmos—Hear! hear! They certainly will before long.

Mr. McClure withdrew his resolutions, but proposed as an addition to Dr. Powell's amendment a clause placing the police under the control or the Mayor.

Dr. Powell's amendment was put and resulted in a tio vote.

The remaining clauces of the bill were then passed, with some amendments, and the

Dr. Trimble said that the circumstances of Namaino differed from those of Victoria, where the police force was much larger, and he moved that section 7, placing the Police and Fire Departments under municipal control be struck out.

Mr. DeCosmos said the hon, gontleman spoke of one thing and moved another. The clause merely provided that the departments should be paid out of municipal funds, and again laboring in error. He overlooked the fact that the House had already voted half per cent, to be raised by the corporation for the maintenance of the police, and fire department. If the corporation did not pay for the police what was to be done with the money?

Dr. Helmeken contended that the half per cent, was insofficient for paying the expenses entailed on the corporation.

Mr. M'Clure argued that the amount to be raised by the half per cent, tax on real estate exclusive of the improvements would be $14,000, leaving, after the police and fire department had been deducted, about $5000. The Council had also the power to make assessments under the seven-tenths clause in the old act. The objection, however, of the Speaker against the smallness of the revenue came with a bad grace, as the hon, gentleman advocated the reduction from $2 per cent which he (Mr. M'Clure) had in the bill, to $2 per cent. (Hear, hear.)

Dr. Helmeken contended that the amount was inadequate, and wound up by intimating that some how members had been have by the content of the period of the sample of the revenue came with a bad grace, as the hon, gentleman advocated the reduction from $2 per cent which it is easylto walk, or travellers can ride in fast Stages.

Mr. M'Clure rose to a question of order. The hon. the Speaker, instead of setting the House an example, as from his position he should do, was constantly breaking the rules of order, and indulging in slang and personalities that would scarcely be tolerated in a bar-room. He considered such remarks a disgrace to the House.

Dr. Helmcken contended he had said nothing out of the way, and thought the hongentloman should know bar-room slang.

After some further debate the Committee reported progress.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.-Influence, Colds.-In diseases of the throat and chest prevalent in this country, nothing so speedily lieves or so certainly cures as these inestimable comedies. These disorders are too often neglec-ted at the commencement; or are injudiciously treated, resulting in either case. In disastrous con-sequences. Whatever the condition of the patient, Holloway's medicines will restore, if recovery be possible; they will retard the alarming symptoms till the blood is purified and Nature consum-mates the cure, gradually restoring strength and vital nervous power. By persevering in the us-of Holloway's preparations, tone is conferred on the atomach and frame generally; the fluids are regenerated, morbific matter is expelled, and a happy revolution occurs throughout the system. happy revolution occurs throughout the system.

Holloway's Ointment.—Wounds, Scalds, Burns, and Irriating Sores.—The peculiarly mild, soothing, anti-inflammatory power exerted by this Ointment strongly recommends its use to all persons who have charge of children. Accidents will occur in the nursery in spite of the greatest caution and utmost vigilance. The scratch, the burn, or the scald, treated early with this Ointment, assumes no angry aspect, and never long tortues the little sufferer, whose very cry excite each bystander's compassion and pierces the parents heart. Every nurse should consider this invaluable Ointment an essential to a well appointed nursery. The Ointment is applicable to any ore, whatever its character. It conducts to health as sure as the compass points to the norts.

HOLLOWAY'S CINTMENT AND FILLS—Palpitation, Shortness of Breath, Dropsy.—This last named disease is often preceded by irregular action of the heart, and difficult respiration which symptoms are always severe, and ever go from bad to worse, unless proper means of cure be resorted to. In Holloway's unrivailed Ointment and Pills' the dropsical patient will ever find succour; the present relief derived from the use of those remedies is marvellously quick, and perseverance in the steady application of this noble Ointment invariably results in a lasting and satisfactory cure. The two medicines act with such energy on the circulation and absorbent system, that the dropsical fluid vanishes, and the sufferer finds all theoppressive symptoms daily decline, till natural health returns. HOLLOWAY' OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Fistu las, Files, Excoriations, and Strictures, are speedily relieved and ultimately removed by applying this Ointment after fomentation with warm water. Persons suffering from these scourges of the human fame should arrest their progress at once, for it is both insidious and rapid. Fistulus, if long allowed to go on unchecked, not only weaken the nervous system, but destroy life. The sooner these inestimable remedies are used the more certain is success; yet none should despair, hopeless cases have often yielded, and the sufferer has been saved a painful death. In excoriations, a few applications of this healing Ontment effect a cure, while the Pills, conjoi thy used, are expecially beneficial in relaxing and removing strictures, whatever their situation or duration.
